WOULD MAKE ENGLAND PAY UP

Annexation of Parts of Belgium and France Included in Pipe Dream

(International News Service.)

London, July 21.—British newspapers in commenting today upon the speech of the new German chancellor in the Reichstag on Thursday, declare that it is a triumph for Pan-Germanism. It is accepted as a foregone conclusion that the chancellor has destroyed all hope for an early peace, and that the war will continue indefinitely.

All singers are urged to join the union choir, as this is one of the most inspiring features of the great services.

Rev. E. Lysander Grau will preach Sunday night on "Summer Religion." A treat is in store for all who come. Your old excuse, "It's too hot," no longer holds good.

(International News Service.)

WILL OPEN DOLLAR JARS ON SATURDAY NIGHT JULY 28TH

HOSPITAL CAMPAIGN CLOSE IS POSTPONED FOR ONE WEEK.

On account of inclement weather the final count and opening of the dollar jars has been postponed until Saturday evening, July 28. The canvass has not been completed and as the interest is increasing and our people awakening to the necessity of supporting the Benevolent hospital, those in authority have determined to take six additional days in order that all may have an opportunity to participate.

Mrs. E. C. Payne, chairman of the hospital board of trustees and ex-officio chairman of the campaign committee, is expected to preside, call for reports and direct the opening of the "dollar jars." Scores of the jars have been "toted" along all the streets and avenues of Decatur and Albany, and the dollar opening has been pointed out by earnest workers as the place to insert the coin. As the jars have been held in trust by the workers and not even opened, few people, if any, have any accurate knowledge as to how much money will be emptied from jars at the close. Members of the hospital committee know the amounts in hand from checks, and from the larger contributors, and with this amount added to the jar account, it is thought that the desired goal will be reached.

Significant Developments.
During the campaign certain local societies have become deeply interested in the work of the Benevolent hospital and are planning to give it their "metallic" sympathy in the future to a much greater extent than in the past. They are going to act on the truth that "if charity begins at home, it will not stay there, but will eventually encircle the globe."

Boy Scouts Help.
In many cases, during the week people having vegetables and fruit, have desired to donate a share of them to the hospital. Wherever that was the case, all to be done was to call up and notify Scout headquarters and almost immediately a bright and willing boy would respond, take his wheel or borrow one, and in a jiffy have the garden truck and fruit at the hospital doors.

PASSED EXAMINATION.
Ollie Schrickel has successfully passed an examination as a sheet metal draftsman by the Goodrich Co. of Akron, Ohio, and will leave the latter part of next week to accept a position there. Mr. Schrickel has been in the employ of the Decatur Cornice and Roofing Company for several years. He is a capable and popular young man and will steadily progress in his profession.

Russ Situation Again Alarming

(International News Service.)

Copenhagen, July 21.—Disorders at Petrograd, mutiny at the front and further resignations of the Russian cabinet, have aroused anew the anxiety over Russia, that was prevalent before the Russians started their offensive on the eastern front. Official advices from the Russian capital tell of the mutiny of Russian regiments on the firing line in Galicia.

At Bodry and Hallez, Russian regiments that were holding important positions fell back upon the eve of German attacks, enabling the Germans to carry out successful attacks.

It is now recognized by a large number of Russian officers that the plan of ruling the troops by committees is a failure.

Kerensky is almost the whole government of Russia. In addition to holding the post of minister of war and marine, he has succeeded Prince Lvoff as premier.

WILL VOTE TODAY ON FOOD CONTROL

(International News Service.)

Washington, July 21.—The five weeks' fight over the food control bill described as the most revolutionary in the history of the American congress, drew to a close today, and the measure will come to a vote before the senate adjourns tonight.

Indications are that the bill will be surpassed in substantially the form endorsed in the bi-partisan conference of leaders. It will contain some radical differences from the house bill, particularly in the prohibition issue. If the bill goes to the president within two weeks, leaders will consider that excellent time has been made.

THOSE CALLED TO COLORS WILL ENTER TRAINING CAMPS DURING SEPT.

Final Lists to Be Prepared By County Boards Throughout Nation

LIST OF MORGAN COUNTY'S MEN

Daily Publishes Names of Those Who Will Be Called First For Examination

(International News Service.)

Washington, July 21.—"Now for the examinations and exemptions." The draft has just begun. Somewhat tired by an ordeal of 16 hours and 33 minutes, utilized in apportioning the standing of the 10,000,000 eligibles for the new army, which ended at 2:18 this morning, Gen. Enoch Crowder, provost marshal general, hit his desk at a few minutes after his usual hour today, ready for the "next step." The work of notifying each exemption board in the country of the standing of eligibles is well under way. The official lists are being sent forward. As soon as they are in the hands of the officials, the work of physical exemption will be commenced. The boards also will consider the affidavits for exemption. The new army, however, will not be called up for several weeks. Some time in September was the time suggested by officials today, but it is likely to be well along towards the last of that month before the men are assembled at the camps where they are to be whipped into shape as a real fighting force. Officials today were highly delighted over the success of the draft.

Morgan county will be required to furnish 328 men as its quota of the first levy of troops for the new national army. In all, the number of men to be drafted into service at this time is 678,000. Later drafts may be made. The men from Morgan called to the colors will be examined by the county board of exemption in the order in which their red ink serial numbers were drawn yesterday at Washington. It is believed that 656 men will be summoned for examination, on the presumption that one man out of every two examined will be exempted. It is possible, however, that additional men may be examined, as more than 70 per cent of those registered claimed exemption. All of these claims may not be allowed.

For the information of the manhood of Morgan county subject to draft, the Daily prints below the names and numbers of the first 656 men drawn, in the order in which they were drawn:

For brevity, precinct addresses are not given. However, men drawn with serial numbers ranging from 1 to 556 are residents of Decatur, while those with serial numbers from 2,000 to 2,745 are residents of Albany.
